They may disqualify the offending horse and place it behind such other horses as in their judgment it interfered with, or they may place it last. The Stewards may determine that a horse shall be unplaced. If the stewards determine a horse or its rider has caused an interference and finished in front of the horse it interfered with, and if not for the interference the horse would have finished behind the horse it interfered with, the interfering horse shall be placed immediately behind the horse with which it interfered. If the interference is a result of dangerous riding, the stewards shall place the interfering horse in last place.~~
